TECHNICAL PROJECTS

MovieMagick - Github | Demo

Flatiron School capstone project. A movie browsing app that helps you keep track of movies you have seen through reviews and movies you want to see through a watchlist.

- Explored ReactRouter in order to create my first multiple page React application.
- Utilized OMDb API to seed data and enable a user to send search queries to their API.
- Applied everything I learned in the Flatiron curriculum to create a full-stack app with a Rails backend and React frontend.

ApartmentFindr - Github | Demo

An apartment finding app that helps you browse listings by neighborhood and price range. Can keep track of listings you have seen by liking or disliking them to make your apartment hunt simpler.

- Expanded my understanding of maintaining state and passing props in a complex app using React.
- Explored React Bootstrap components to create a user-friendly UI experience.
- Acquired seed data with a custom-built web scraping program using Watir and Nokogiri.

SAMtify - Github | Demo

A music browsing/streaming app in which users can browse music by artists, songs, and playlists. Users can create their own playlists and favorite other users' playlists. Can favorite other users' playlists and subscribe to artists. Can sort songs/artists/playlists by popularity or alphabetically.

- Practice building and using Rails model relationships with ActiveRecord.
- Communicated with the Spotify API to seed our artist and song data.
- Explored CSS to create a visually appealing application
